6-2006

MS-074: Thomas B. McGaffick, Co. F, 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry

Christopher M. Gwinn
Gettysburg College

Follow this and additional works at: http://cupola.gettysburg.edu/findingaidsall

Part of the Military History Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Share feedback about the accessibility of this item.

This finding aid appears in Gettysburg College's institutional repository by permission of the copyright owner for personal use, not for redistribution. Cupola permanent link: http://cupola.gettysburg.edu/findingaidsall/69

This open access book is brought to you by The Cupola: Scholarship at Gettysburg College. It has been accepted for inclusion by an authorized administrator of The Cupola. For more information, please contact cupola@gettysburg.edu.
MS-074: Thomas B. McGaffick, Co. F, 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry

Description
The letters of Thomas B. McGaffick, a corporal in Company F of the 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry range in date from January 19th, 1861 to February 11, 1863. The collection contains twenty two pieces of correspondence, including two fragments of letters along with a number of official documents relating to McGaffick's discharge from the army. The letters are all addressed to members of Thomas's family, including his sisters Belle and Mary, his brother Benjamin and his parents. The letters address a variety of subjects ranging from the rigors of army life to McGaffick's constant battle with his own health. Thomas rarely received enough correspondence to keep him satisfied and was constantly after family members to write more. He described his thoughts on General McClellan, his desire to return home and the various women to whom he wrote during the conflict. Also of interest is McGaffick's view towards the African Americans he encountered while in the south. "If I thought I was fighting to free the niggers I would go home and let and let Lincoln fight it out himself."

Special Collections and College Archives Finding Aids are discovery tools used to describe and provide access to our holdings. Finding aids include historical and biographical information about each collection in addition to inventories of their content. More information about our collections can be found on our website http://www.gettysburg.edu/special_collections/collections/.

Keywords
Civil War, 101st Pennsylvania, Peninsula Campaign, Siege of Yorktown, Battle of Williamsburg, Battle of Seven Pines, Battle of Malvern Hill, Army Life

Disciplines
History | Military History | Social History | United States History

This book is available at The Cupola: Scholarship at Gettysburg College: http://cupola.gettysburg.edu/findingaidsall/69
Guide to
Thomas B. McGaffick, Co. F,
101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry

Gettysburg College, Musselman Library
Special Collections & College Archives

Processed by Christopher Gwinn
June 2006
Biography:

Thomas B. McGaffick was born and raised in Industry, PA in the county of Beaver to Jesse and Elizabeth McGaffick. Previous to service in the union army he was employed as a farmer. He enlisted in Company F of the 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry on November 9, 1861 and was soon elevated to the rank of corporal. With the 101st Pennsylvania McGaffick participated in the 1862 Peninsula Campaign which included the Siege of Yorktown as well as the Battles of Williamsburg, Seven Pines and Malvern Hill, all of which the 101st was engaged in.

After service on the Peninsula the 101st along with McGaffick was transferred to North Carolina. While stationed a New Berne the unit participated in a number of engagements including the battles of Kingston and Goldsboro. McGaffick had long been suffering from ill health and as a result often found himself in the U.S. General Hospital at Annapolis. Three letters bear the Annapolis address, the first on May 27th, 1862 and the last on August 6th of that year. This puts into question just how much of the Peninsula Campaign McGaffick was witness to. He will serve the remainder of his time in the army in the New Berne North Carolina area, receiving a discharge for sickness on February 5th, 1863. McGaffick died a short time later, on July 5th, 1863, most likely as a result of the sickness contracted while a soldier in the Union army.

Scope and Content:

The letters of Thomas B. McGaffick, a corporal in Company F of the 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry range in date from January 19th, 1861 to February 11, 1863. The collection contains twenty two pieces of correspondence, including two fragments of letters along with a number of official documents relating to McGaffick’s discharge from the army. The letters are all addressed to members of Thomas’s family, including his sisters Belle and Mary, his brother Benjamin and his parents. The letters address a variety of subjects ranging from the rigors of army life to McGaffick’s constant battle with his own health. Thomas rarely received enough correspondence to keep him satisfied and was constantly after family members to write more. He described his thoughts on General McClellan, his desire to return home and the various women to whom he wrote during the conflict. Also of interest is McGaffick’s view towards the African Americans he encountered while in the south. “If I thought I was fighting to free the niggers I would go home and let and let Lincoln fight it out himself.”
1 – 1 Correspondence: January 19, 1861 – May 29, 1862

January 19, 1861   Head Quarters, Camp Curtain: Dear Brother
Benjamin
January 11, 1862   Headquarters, Camp Curtain, Harrisburg: Dear
Sister Mary
May 27, 1862   U.S. General Hospital, Annapolis, MD: Dear Sister Mary
May 29, 1862   U.S. General Hospital, Annapolis, MD: Dear Father

1 – 2 Correspondence: August 6, 1862 – October 23, 1862

August 6, 1862   U.S. General Hospital, Annapolis, MD: Dear
Father, Mother,    Sisters & Brother
September 25, 1862 Camp Near Suffolk, VA: Dear Sister Mary
October 23, 1862   Camp Near Suffolk, VA: Dear Brother

1 – 3 Correspondence: November 9, 1862 – January 19, 1863

November 9, 1862  Camp Near Suffolk, VA: Dear Mary
November 29, 1862 Camp Near Suffolk, VA: Dear Sister
December 22, 1862 Camp Near Suffolk, VA: Dear Sister Mary
January 19, 1863   Newbern, NC: Dear Sister Bell

1 – 4 Correspondence: Undated or Fragmentary

February 11, [?]   At Home: Dear Sister
No Date   Dear Sister
No Date    Well Sister Mary
No Date   Well Father
No Date    Well Mary

1 – 5 Correspondence: Undated or Fragmentary

No Date   Fragment of Letter
No Date   Fragment of Letter
No Date   Poetry Fragment

1 – 6 Official Documents Pertaining to the Discharge of Thomas McGaffick

June 11, 1862   U.S. General Hospital, Annapolis, MD: Notification of Furlough
February 5, 1863 New Berne, NC: Discharge Papers for Thomas
McGaffick
February 7, 1863

New Berne, NC: Oath of Identity Papers for Thomas McGaffick

1 – 7 Photocopies of Biographical and Unit Information