Author Bio

Khun Minn Ohn is a self-taught photographer and filmmaker from Yangon, Burma. Since high school, he has been pursuing photography as a hobby. At the age of eighteen, he made his first documentary, "Kings N Queens," which was selected for the 33rd Uppsala International Short Film Festival in Sweden. Through street photography, Khun likes to capture life and culture in a candid manner. Lately, he has been experimenting with portrait photography. At Gettysburg College, Khun works as a photographer for the Schmucker Art Gallery and Athletic Communications. He is currently an intern at Communications and Marketing, where he produces video content for Gettysburg College's social media platforms.
