Description
This display will challenge students to think about the process that publications go through in order to arrive in their hands in time for class. The display features three scenarios and questions about the publication process with a flip-up feature to reveal the answer. Students are invited to write down their best guesses, and those who stop by during the table hours will be eligible for an Open Access cupcake and the chance to enter a raffle for a $25 Bookstore gift certificate!

Location
Musselman Library, Main Floor

Disciplines
Information Literacy | Scholarly Communication | Scholarly Publishing

Comments
This display will be featured on the Main Floor throughout the week of October 22nd-26th. The raffle and cupcakes will be available during the table hours on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 11:00-1:00.
