OA WEEK 2018
October 22-26
"The reason why we have the research is because we’re trying to solve problems in the world-

When large portions of the population don’t have the access to the research, odds of solving a big problem are significantly lower."

-Cable Green, Director of Open Education, Creative Commons
"Universities are about educating humans...there is literally no reason to keep information from people."

-Aria Chernik, Director, OSPRI, Duke University
"As students, access to high-quality, peer-reviews research is abundant, as alumni, the abundance is replaced by pay walls and “members only” attitude”

-”Engaging undergraduates in scholarly communication: Outreach, education, and advocacy”
