Giraffe Trophy

Author Bio

Francesco has focused on structure and discipline throughout most of his life, declaring a psychology major early in his college career. During his sophomore year, he took a risk and enrolled in Introduction to Drawing. He fell in love and declared a second major in studio art within a year. Working mainly with photography and ceramics, he is always pleasantly surprised at the places he goes and the freedom he feels when he is creating works that speak to his individuality.
