Biography:
Robert Bell Bradley was a medic with the 30th Infantry division during WWII. Prior to enlisting, he was a pre-med major at the University of Maryland. He was taken as a prisoner of war on August 9, 1944, in France after the Battle of Mortain. He was imprisoned east of Berlin and freed by the Russian army in January, 1945. After finishing his tour of duty working at a contagious ward in Virginia, he returned to college and became a medical physicist, designing and testing medical equipment. He met his wife Marjorie while working at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland.
