Contributor Biographies:

Alexander Allen, class of 2011, is a major of Biology and minor of Neuroscience who intends to apply to medical school. Apart from his involvement in the sciences at Gettysburg College, Alexander participates in numerous musical ensembles in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music.

Katie Chandler is a senior from Damascus, Maryland with a double major in history and German. Other than working on the Historical Journal, Katie works as a Tour Guide for the Gettysburg Admissions Office and as a tutor for the German department. After graduating from Gettysburg, Katie will be working as an English Teaching Assistant in Villach, Austria.

Miriam Grinberg is a senior Political Science major and History minor from Holland, Pennsylvania. She studied abroad in Bath, England in fall of 2009 and will be attending Kansai Gaidai University in Hirakata City, Japan during the fall 2010 semester. She hopes to pursue a postgraduate degree in International Relations with a concentration on East Asia.

Liz Johns is a senior double major in History and Political Science. She will pursue a Master of Science in Library Science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Nathan Lanam is from Souderton, Pennsylvania (a suburb of Philadelphia) where he is active in his Church and Scouting and has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. When he was thirteen, Nathan started collecting ancient and medieval weaponry and soon began practicing archery. Winning the Greninger Prize has solidified his goal to become a writer of Historical Fiction.

Evan Rothera is a senior from West Windsor, New Jersey. Evan double majored in History and Spanish and minored in Civil War Era Studies. In addition to serving as the editor of the Historical Journal, he is also the co-editor of the Gettysburg College Journal of the Civil War Era. In the fall Evan will begin his graduate work in History at Penn State.

Rachel Santose is a junior from Broadview Heights, Ohio and is currently finishing up her semester abroad in Bath, England. She is majoring in History and minoring in Civil War Era Studies. Besides serving on the staff of the Gettysburg Historical Journal, Rachel is also heavily involved in Gettysburg's Campus Activities Board (CAB) and Attic Advisory Board (AAB). Rachel is also a member of Phi Alpha Theta, Omicron Kappa Delta, and serves as a co-editor for the Gettysburg College Journal of the Civil War Era.

Andrea Savadelis is a native of New Jersey and likes to ride horses and play her acoustic guitar in her spare time. Andrea has always wanted to be a teacher and fell in love with history due to the inspiration she received from her 9th grade history teacher, Mrs. Gesek. She completed a history major at Gettysburg College and is currently pursuing a Secondary Social Studies MAT at The College of New Jersey. Andrea is forever grateful for her family, friends, and professors who gave me inspiration to do great work. She hopes to one day give back to the educational community what it has provided her and more.

Elizabeth Ungemach is a Junior History major, Spanish minor from Wayne, NJ. She will be President of Newman Association, Vice President of the Civil War Club, and Secretary of the Interfaith Council in the Fall and enjoys reading and swimming outside of class.

Colin Walfield is a recent graduate (May 2010) with a major in History and a minor in Classical Studies. Colin studied abroad in Fall 2008 in Bath where he worked as an intern with the Museum of Bath at Work. Last Fall, he volunteered with the Eisenhower National Historic Site in Gettysburg. He currently lives on Long Island
