From the Trenches: Cross-Campus Digital History Collaboration

Abstract
In September 2015, our team launched The First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs (www.jackpeirs.org), a digital history initiative built on collaboration between faculty, students, and library staff. The project is founded on amazing primary source material, but with limited financial support and little dedicated staff time. We leveraged the creativity and hard work of our team members to build a website that is maintained by students and enhanced whenever possible with features and commentary from faculty and staff. Members of #TeamPeirs discussed the evolution of the project, the nature of our collaboration, and the intersection of audiences we have discovered.

The First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs

- Around 300 letters, documents, artifacts, maps, and photographs from a British officer of the BEF
- All currently on loan to Special Collections and College Archives, Gettysburg College
- Family requested that everything be digitized and made freely available without copyright restrictions
- The Peirs Project = blog + social media
- Engaging with WWI scholars, enthusiasts, genealogists, & students

Vision and Beginnings

- Classroom connection with student
- Traditional research paper
- Family support for new initiative
- Assembling a "dream team"
- No idea what we were doing

About

Welcome to the First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs, a digital history project at Gettysburg College.

Jack Peirs was a British officer in the 8th Battalion, the Queen’s Royal West Surrey Regiment. For three years, Peirs served on the western front, fighting in every major campaign waged by the British Army from 1915 to 1918. During the war, Peirs rose in rank from Lieutenant to Lieutenant-Colonel and he was decorated with Distinguished Service Order (two bars) and named a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George at the King’s Birthday Honours in 1919.

Jack Peirs saw hard service and he was a prolific correspondent. He wrote home weekly to members of his family and his experiences at the front. On the hundredth anniversary of the day in which Peirs composed each letter home, we will release his words here for you to read.

Please feel free to engage with the site. Use these letters in your research (properly attributed) and in your classroom. Bookmark our page, share our posts on social media, and follow H.J.C. Peirs on Twitter and Instagram (@maracsprin18) and like our Facebook page.

LE VERGUIER - 21-22 MARCH

Trenches, bombardment of positions with regular and gas shelled commenced at 4:30 AM. The Headquarters is moved again to a unknown location on the southern outskirts of Le Vergyier.

The tour was on the broken cable route, but by 7 AM all telephone communications with the forward companies were lost.

At 10:30 AM, Companies A, C, and D were cut off from support by the enemy. A Company's Lance Corporal John Sayer showed incredible resistance for which he later received the Victoria Cross.

At 3 PM, pets arrived to take over command and attacks on the village begin. Throughout the night, pets lead counterattacks.

On the morning of the 22, only Fort Greathough and the Battalion Headquarters remain and Peters ordered a surrender, against his orders to hold the town.
