MS-134: William C. Wright Collection of the Eugene McCarthy 1968 Presidential Campaign

Description

This collection contains the remaining records of the Delaware State Steering Committee during the 1968 Eugene McCarthy presidential campaign. Unfortunately, the Delaware State Steering Committee kept very little in the way of written reports. The content of this collection is what was left when the office was cleaned out: newsletters, flyers, posters, newspapers, a 45 rpm recording, campaign instructions, posters, and buttons. The press releases contain the contents of many of McCarthy's speeches and writings.

Special Collections and College Archives Finding Aids are discovery tools used to describe and provide access to our holdings. Finding aids include historical and biographical information about each collection in addition to inventories of their content. More information about our collections can be found on our website http://www.gettysburg.edu/special_collections/collections/.

Biography:

The Eugene McCarthy presidential campaign of 1968 was launched by Senator Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota in the latter part of 1967 to vie for 1968 Democratic Party nomination for President of the United States. The focus of his campaign was his support for a swift end to the Vietnam War through a withdrawal of American forces. The campaign appealed to youths who were tired of the establishment and dissatisfied with government. Dr. William C. Wright, Gettysburg College Class of 1961, was on the Delaware State Steering Committee for the Eugene McCarthy 1968 presidential campaign when he was a graduate student at the University of Delaware.

After the McCarthy campaign ended, Wright worked for the Democratic congressional candidate, Harris McDowell, Jr. (who lost to Bill Roth). Wright was also appointed to the Delaware state McGovern commission. Each state appointed a McGovern commission to revise the rules for selecting presidential delegates after the Chicago convention. He was elected treasurer of the Delaware New Democratic Coalition (NDC), a national organization of liberal democrats (McCarthy, Kennedy, and McGovern supporters).
