Provenance

Passed down from Kate Burr Whiting to one recipient, her friend Mary Hunsiker, and then sent by Hunsiker to a cousin named Rose Atwood. Then unknown until purchased from the William Reese Company in 2014.

Biography

Born May 9, 1840 in Attleboro, Massachusetts, Kate Burr Draper married Stephen Betts Whiting, a mining engineer in 1857. They had six children, two of whom would travel with them later on. In late January 1898, Kate (58), Stephen (68), Howard (27), and Edgar (24) Whiting took a two and half month long trip on a steamer called the Augusta-Victoria to multiple countries bordering the Mediterranean Sea. Whiting describes with great detail the people, cultures, habits, living conditions, tourist sites, etc. she sees on the trip. They return to the United States in early April 1898. In the journal, titled My Oriental Trip, is a letter she wrote to her cousin Rose, describing that the journal would soon come to her from a friend named Mary Hunsiker. There is also a newspaper article on Mary Hunsiker, the first person gifted the journal. Whiting's journal illustrates her love of animals, gardens, and clean spaces, attention to detail, and a hatred of the cold. In addition, Whiting vividly describes, along with 136 photographs and detailed descriptions, her family's journey in the Mediterranean.

“To be kept- in Diary of Cousin Kate” written in pencil on side

Comes from Cambridge, Massachusetts – January 4, 1928

Happy New Year to all!

Jan. 4/28

My dear Rose: -

I am not able to write much, and ought not to use my eyes, but I want to warn you that you will probably receive a book by mail before many moons. It will be the Oriental Diary of your Cousin Kate, who, when she gave it to Mame Hunsiker in 1898 requested her to will it to my Cousin Rose. Yesterday
[page 2]

I received a letter from her asking for your address. She is clearing her house of superfluous things – as she is getting on in years, and travels a great deal and would save her family from the trouble of disposing of her things willed or otherwise. I hope you will find some pleasure in reading it enough to pay for the time required. Well Christmas has come and Christmas has went and lots of good things to me were sent. I sent to my family about 50 odds and ends that I unearthed among my souvenirs and trifling treasures. Did you “get on” to the fact that my card - I hope you received it – was an original concoction? All but the pasteboard and the picture emanated from my feeble brain. And did you notice the dates 1840-1927. Where can you find a woman who

gone away her age in that style! My publisher thought them very original ahem! I wrote and sent over thirty-five. You see I couldn't buy cards because I couldn't see to read the lines or even the pictures.

Harold came to us the day after Christmas and spent 3 days with us. I was carried down stairs to dine with him and Edgar twice. I have not been out of doors since Sept. but am feeling very comfortable – barring a cold.
Good-bye! Write when you can,
Love to all from Cousin Kate.
