Provenance

Items collected by Susan Hill '67 and donated to Special Collections in September 2017 along with items in MS-222 Lt. John M. Colestock '65 Papers.

Historical and Biographical Note

Susan Hill (née Colestock) '67 was the wife of Cpt. Robert L. Morris '66 and the brother of Lt. John M. Colestock '65, both of whom died in service during the Vietnam War. Robert L. Morris was born on March 26, 1944 and grew up in Annville, PA. While at Gettysburg, he served as President of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, was a member of the Arnold Air Society, Varsity G-Club, and the Physical Education Majors Club, and played varsity basketball and baseball. He graduated in 1966 after majoring in physical education and minoring in biology and chemistry. After graduating, he married Susan C. Colestock '67 and joined the United States Air Force. In March of 1972, Cpt. Morris was killed during a plane crash over northeast Spain. Another alumnus, Lt. Daniel Whipps '69, was also killed in the crash. Cpt. Morris was 27 years old when he died and was buried in Gettysburg National Cemetery. Morris was one of the over 58,000 U.S. servicemen who died during the Vietnam War and one of the thirteen Gettysburg College alumni who died in service during the War.
