MS-286: Elizabeth and Elmer McKee, Class of 1944

Description

This collection contains over 500 letters, 17 V-Mail, and 25 additional items, including Elmer's college transcript, military documents, and personal narrative. The bulk of the letters are written by Elmer (Chuck) to Elizabeth (Diz), but there are over 100 letters written by Elizabeth in the closing years of this collection (1945-46). These letters provide insight into the Gettysburg College experience during the early 1940's and the daily life of men stationed in Europe during World War II. Many of the letters depict Elmer and Elizabeth navigating their personal relationship, whilst simultaneously navigating the complex time period in which they lived. Researchers interested in the experiences of Gettysburg College students or soldiers serving in Europe during World War II may find this collection to be a helpful resource.

Elmer and Elizabeth's correspondence is considerably regular with very few gaps, especially in 1945. However, there are two files of miscellaneous correspondence written by/for Elmer and Elizabeth that are missing dates or contain unknown creators. Within the Special Collections digital files for the McKee collection, there are also photos from Elizabeth and Elmer's wedding, Elmer's time in the U.S. Army, along with scanned copies of Elmer's military documents and personal narrative.

Special Collections and College Archives Finding Aids are discovery tools used to describe and provide access to our holdings. Finding aids include historical and biographical information about each collection in addition to inventories of their content. Donated by Elmer and Elizabeth McKee's son, Robert McKee, August 2018 (Accession #2019-0030)

Biographical Note

Elmer Slaybaugh McKee (1921-2017) began attending Gettysburg College in 1940, where he majored in Chemistry and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. In 1942, Elmer enlisted in the U.S. Army and was trained at Fort McClellan, Alabama and Fort Benning, Georgia. He eventually served in France and Germany (1943-1946) as part of the 254th Infantry, 63rd Division of the U.S. Army. While he was stationed overseas, he was awarded his Bachelor's degree from Gettysburg College (Sept. 1944) and earned the ranks of Captain, Platoon Leader, Company Commander, and Battalion S-3 Operations Officer within the U.S. Army.

After meeting in the spring of 1941, Elmer McKee and Elizabeth Richards (1925-2001) maintained correspondence while Elmer attended college and served overseas. Throughout their letters, they navigated their evolving relationship and shared their differing experiences of the war years. When Elmer returned in 1946, he and Elizabeth were married in July. They would go on to have four children: James, Robert, Richard, and Peter McKee.

Historical Note

The United States officially entered World War II on December 8, 1941, following Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. By the fall of 1942, the draft age was expanded to include all able men 18-37 years old. In this context, Elmer McKee enlisted in the U.S. Army at the age of 20 in 1942.

World War II ended in Europe on May 8, 1945, and September 2, 1945 in Japan. As Elmer served in France and Germany until 1946, he would have witnessed the closing of the war and its immediate aftermath in Europe.

Scope and Content Note
