Author Bio

Randy is a double major at Gettysburg in English and Philosophy, which means he jumps at any opportunity to write something that is not a paper! He is also one of the co-leaders of QHouse, works in the Art Gallery and Costume shop, and generally tries to get to as many clubs as his homework and love of cooking spontaneous complex 5-course meals at 9 pm will let him.

It's Okay

RANDY E. FEELEY

I sink into this chair,
Overstuffed and sticking to my thighs,
A study always dimmed against the light.
I visit you less often now,
Because I need to talk less now,
And I see you seeing me
As I used to be,
And you say,
Thinking of times gone by,
Do you remember when you cried?

I remember when I cried.
It was last week, in the shower;
It was last month, in my girlfriend's bed.
You say,
You have grown so much since then,
And I say yes, I have,
But I still cry.
