Author Bio

I'm from Bangladesh, and I'm passionate about design and interactive media arts. I have also dedicated the last two years to studying architecture, which has broadened my creative horizons and sharpened my sense of design. My exploration of diverse creative outlets has deepened my love for voiceovers and art, viewing them as effective tools for realizing my conceptual universe and giving shape to my infinite imagination. Currently pursuing Computer Science at Gettysburg College, I am actively honing my skills to merge technology with creativity. I thrive in combining all these insights, aiming to contribute innovative solutions to the gaming industry.
