

Bibliography Rubric

	5	4	3	2	1
Ethical Use of Information: Are sources cited clearly and properly?	All citations are complete and formatted correctly in appropriate style.	Citations are generally complete and formatted correctly, with some minor mistakes.	Citations are generally complete and formatted correctly, with several mistakes.	Many incomplete citations with several formatting mistakes.	Citations are incomplete, with no attention to format.
Source Quality: Are sources of an appropriate level of scholarship (timely, reputable, discipline-related)?	All sources are clearly appropriate for the topic. Sources are timely, of reputable scholarship, and from relevant disciplines.	All sources appear appropriate for the topic. Most sources are timely, of reputable scholarship, and from relevant disciplines.	Most sources appear appropriate for the topic. Most sources are timely, of reputable scholarship, and from relevant disciplines.	Most sources do not appear appropriate for the topic. Sources lack relevancy and are not of an appropriate level of scholarship.	Sources are not appropriate for the topic. Sources lack relevancy and are not of an appropriate level of scholarship.
Source Breadth: Are sources from a variety of journals, authors, websites, etc.?	Bibliography contains a comprehensive number of varied and appropriate sources, including books, articles, web pages, statistical information, etc.	Bibliography contains a number of varied sources and authors.	Bibliography contains some variety in sources. Same author/publication/website comprises a number of the sources used.	Bibliography lacks variety in sources. Same author/publication/website comprises the majority of the sources utilized.	No variety of sources cited. Same author/publication/website comprises ALL of the sources utilized.
Number of Citations: Comparative to peer citations.					