Author Bio

Dinesh Manandhar is a Mathematics major with a Chemistry and Biology double minor. Nevertheless, she is really into arts, especially sketching and paintings. This past summer she took an acrylic painting course in Nepal, and towards the end started her "Nepali Girls" piece. She didn't get to completely finish this painting over the summer. But she is happy with how much she got done. Last but not the least, she would really want to thank her mentor, Ms. Bidhata K.C. who helped her transition into the world of acrylic.
