Struggle, Stammer, Stutter.
Until they give up on me, Assume my words are wo-wo-worthless, Assume that I am worthless.

Masticate

Sitting like a petit Victorian goddess, the blonde raises ripe, red apple to lush lips, opens, closes, chews.
Quaint jaw muscles grind, trained to move ever so slowly as the fair lady nods to fellow queen recounting disposed male attendants of bygone debauches. Staring secretly I pine for soft skin, blue eyes, blonde hair flowing around amble breasts and stunning body. The pair cackles at tales of deceitful love, while the beauty sinks teeth into juicy flesh. Chomping, gnawing, squashing lips move up and down, methodically devouring morsels of men that the serpent continuously consumes with deadly eyes and pointed face, forever sings her hellish ode, luring heroes toward ferocious jaws that lead, tempt, covet, kill.
